Sunday, October 13th
1:30pm & 3pm | Roving

Prepare for a brilliant feast for the eyes and imagination as Circus Fungus' whimsical roving fall characters, like the Scarecrow Family, Hedge Wizard Woodruff Talltree, forest faeries Forestra & Ivy, the incorrigible Ms. Fox and her lovely dining companion Mrs. Chicken come out to play in the Village this Thanksgiving weekend.

A TASTE OF FALL – HOT APPLE CIDER

Saturday, October 12
12 – 4pm* | Whistler Olympic Plaza, Pavilion
Sunday, October 13
12 – 4pm* | Millennium Place

Nothing brings out the crisp and spicy flavours of fall better than a cup of hot apple cider. Curl up with your body-warming and toe-tingling cup as you enjoy the stories brought to you by the Whistler Public Library Book Bike, make Thanksgiving crafts or carve your own pumpkin masterpiece. *while samples last.

PUMPKIN CARVING STATION

Saturday, October 12
12 – 4pm* | Whistler Olympic Plaza, Pavilion
Sunday, October 13
12 – 4pm* | Millennium Place

Celebrate the fruit of the season – the Pumpkin – with the fun tradition of pumpkin carving and decorating! Create a spooky, funny, or creative pumpkin to grace your Thanksgiving table or your porch in time for Halloween! Pumpkins kindly donated by Nesters Food Market Whistler – Where the locals shop! *while samples last.

THANKSGIVING AND FALL CRAFTS STATION

Saturday, October 12
12 – 4pm | Whistler Olympic Plaza, Pavilion
Sunday, October 13
12 – 4pm | Millennium Place

Get into the spirit of Thanksgiving and fall with fun, seasonal crafts and decorations that you can take home. Make a paper turkey, leaf stamp cards, colorful garlands and more!

WHISTLER PUBLIC LIBRARY PRESENTS THE BOOK BIKE

Saturday, October 12
1 – 1:30pm | Whistler Olympic Plaza, Pavilion
Sunday, October 13
1 – 1:30pm | Millennium Place

The Book Bike is the Whistler Public Library's unique way of bringing the library to Whistler's Stroll. There is nothing more quintessentially Whistler than a bicycle, especially one that opens up the mind to wondrous distant lands, exciting adventures and inspiring characters! Take a seat on a colourful mat, soak up the crisp fall air, and enjoy stories of fall and Thanksgiving presented straight from the bike. *Location may move to Millennium Place Gallery if the weather is inclement.

Saturday, October 12
12 – 4pm | Sightlines Bridge Alcove
Sunday, October 13
12 – 4pm | Sightlines Bridge Alcove

This is the perfect opportunity for a photo with your family and friends right in time for Thanksgiving! With plenty of laughs along the way and no worries about looking silly, stand behind one of our artistic life-size cut-out characters and voilà! You are a biker, an explorer or just chilling with the bears!
