

COVID-19 BUSINESS IMPACT IN WHISTLER

In light of recent directives from the federal and provincial governments, and to help support efforts to curb the spread of COVID-19, many Whistler businesses and activities have altered their operations. Numerous events and programs are also affected. Tourism Whistler is doing its best to keep you informed of the status of local businesses, however the situation continues to evolve quickly.

Contact information for the majority of businesses listed here is available from our Whistler Business Directory.
